Battalion Chief Jeff Gaul Promoted to Deputy Chief

The Chino Valley Fire District is proud to announce the promotion of Battalion Chief Jeff Gaul to the position of Deputy Chief/Fire Marshal, effective January 28th. Under his new assignment, Chief Gaul will oversee the Fire District's Fire Prevention Bureau.

Chief Gaul began his career in the Fire Service as a firefighter with the Chino Valley Fire District in June 1974. He became a firefighter/paramedic the following year and was promoted to the rank of Engineer in 1979. He was promoted to Captain in 1981 and to Battalion Chief in 1991. He has proudly served the communities of Chino and Chino Hills for 38 years and is looking forward to continuing his career of service with the Fire District as a Deputy Chief/Fire Marshal.

Chief Gaul earned his bachelor's degree in fire protection administration from California State University, Los Angeles in 1992. He is the chairperson for the District's Urban Search and Rescue (USAR) committee. He also serves as chairman of the San Bernardino county USAR committee. Chief Gaul also oversees the Fire District's Facilities Committee.
